

Yesterday I enjoyed seeing the excited group of 40 students leave the academy just after lunch time in order to watch Abba Voyage. In the summer term, these same students attended a workshop about the making of the production and yesterday had the opportunity to enjoy the full performance.

Preparations for our Year 7s Concert and classwork exhibition on 22nd October are well underway. We do hope that parents have this date in their diary and will be there to celebrate all the achievements this term so far.

Clubs have begun in earnest at lunch times and after school, with lunch time table tennis being one of the most popular at the moment. If your child is not yet attending clubs, do take a look at the link below and encourage them to come along to one or two.

You may also have noticed our new minibus that is parked outside the academy. We are so grateful to Hived for the parking space and very much looking forward to using it for trips, visits and sports fixtures.

Finally, on Wednesday we welcomed the Iain Freeland to the academy, the National Director of Education for Oasis Community Learning. He oversees 52 academies and was very pleased to see the academy’s progress. He particularly praised the attitudes and behaviour of the students and great learning that he saw in DT, in music and in English.

I hope you have a peaceful weekend when it comes.

Emily Boxer, Principal

“My name is Ms. Carter, and I've been a part of Oasis Silvertown since it first opened. Silvertown is a community that truly deserves an excellent school, and I'm proud to be part of Oasis Silvertown's journey toward that goal. The school feels like a family, and it's a privilege to work alongside such wonderful people. A little about me— I love reading and have my own personal library at home.”
